ART DÜSSELDORF 2025: GALLERY LINEUP ANNOUNCED

Art Düsseldorf is set to strengthen its standing as a leading art fair in the German-speaking world with its seventh edition. This year's event will showcase 108 galleries, featuring an exciting mix of 33 newcomers and 75 returning exhibitors, promising a rich and diverse program that continues to establish the fair as a hub for contemporary art excellence.

International Reach

The fair boasts a strong global presence with 33 international galleries, including powerhouses like Mennour and Pace. This year's lineup spans across continents, with eight Austrian galleries and exhibitors from Japan, South Africa, Korea, Kuwait, the United States, Portugal, Turkey, Slovakia, Italy, Belgium, France, and Spain.

Local Heritage

The Rhineland art scene is well represented with 34 regional galleries (20 from Düsseldorf, 12 from Cologne, and 2 from Bonn). A highlight will be Galerie Ludorff's special exhibition celebrating their 50th anniversary.

The Next section will feature 17 galleries, including 10 first-time participants. The Solo and Projects section will present 16 unique exhibitions exploring two themes: „Love is the Answer“ and „Liminal State“.

Japanese Art in Focus

Building on Düsseldorf's status as home to Europe's third-largest Japanese community (after London and Paris), the 2025 edition will spotlight Japanese art. Following last year's successful showcase of Tokyo's anonymous art project, this year welcomes Masumi Sasaki Gallery from Tokyo. Japanese artists will feature prominently throughout the fair, including works by Takako Saito (boa-basedonart), Asana Fujikawa (Galerie Friese), Noriko Amba (AOA;87), and Haruko Maeda (Elektrohalle Rhomberg), highlighting the fair's commitment to cultural exchange.

Curated Experience

The 2025 edition maintains its carefully curated approach, designed to guide visitors through meaningful artistic discoveries. As Walter Gehlen, Director of Art Düsseldorf, explains: „Our thoughtful curation creates a clear path through the exhibition, helping visitors explore exceptional art while providing context and direction.“

The seventh edition of Art Düsseldorf continues its mission to showcase artistic excellence, foster new connections, and drive conversations in the contemporary
