Join Art Düsseldorf as it celebrates its fifth year. Since its first edition in 2017, the fair has not only acted as sounding board for the diverse art landscape in the Rhineland, but also as a vital destination for discourse on the art world. Every year, the team has worked to develop and present engaging new formats for the fair, and attract leaders in the art and cultural industries to Düsseldorf and its surrounding region.

With the participation of such industry leaders as Çağla İlk, Till Fellrath, Udo Kittelmann, and many others, this year's Art Düsseldorf Talks series promises to highlight key topics relevant to the art world. The program includes such topics as: Rhineland Connections - Generational Shift, and Better together? - New Ways of Working. With this program, the guests will discuss things like the generational shift in the art business and the challenges of working in a collective.

With its new NEXT and SOLO PROJECTS sections, galleries have new methods for championing both established and upcoming artists. In the NEXT section, galleries such as Russi Klenner (Berlin), Emami Art (Kolkata), Claas Reiss (London) or Livie Gallery (Zurich) will show fresh positions from young artists. Additionally, outstanding individual presentations will be shown in the SOLO PROJECTS section, including: Birgit Brenner (Eigen + Art), Fabian Herkenhoener (Priska Pasquer), and Hans Vandekerckhove (Tatjana Pieters), among others.

In the Main Section, new additions for this edition of the fair include Galerie Nordenhake (Berlin, Stockholm, Mexico City), Ruttkowski;68 (Cologne, Paris, Düsseldorf, New York), Klemm's (Berlin), and Galerie Ludorff (Düsseldorf). Meanwhile, the fair welcomes back such galleries as Sies+Höke (Düsseldorf), Galerie Michael Haas (Berlin), Galerie Krinzinger (Vienna), Jacky Strenz (Frankfurt), and Galerie Bene Taschen (Cologne).

During fair days, particularly noteworthy exhibitions in the city and region are also encouraged. Visitors to the city can see outstanding exhibitions of Etel Adnan and Jenny Holzer in the Kunstsammlung NRW and Julia Scher in the Museum Abteiberg, as well as Refik Anadol in the Kunstpalast and Peter Piller in the Kunsthalle. The private collections Philara, Langen Foundation and Julia Stoschek are also worth a visit.

Now, the only one missing is you. We are pleased to invite you to Düsseldorf and to our press conference on March 30th, 2023 at 10:00 a.m.

In conversation with Felix Krämer (General Director and Artistic Director Kunstpa-last Düsseldorf) and Susanne Gaensheimer (Director of the Kunstsammlung NRW), Director Walter Gehlen will introduce the innovations of the current edition and talk about the weight and potential of Düsseldorf as a city of art.
